

Wearing A Wire

Hey Mercedes

And the phone just won't stop screaming
Please leave my party now in peace
Cause undercover comes so naturally
Overdone and dull routine
Cause they tap our calls
And listen through the walls
And hide in every hall watching me
Here they come
Saying "Where have you gone
What have you done
Are you wearing a wire
Are you playing dumb"
Just how long have you ben standing there
What exactly did you hear
Stealing heaven you will sure catch hell
And then you'll know too well
When you are fired
Here they come
Saying "Where have you gone
What have you done
Are you wearing a wire
Are you even aware
Where have you
What have you done
Are you wearing a wire"
In a van on the corner there's a posse
All with headphones on by and audio board
And a gun in a cheap suit shrugs who
They pay a made mint to decipher every word
And this is what he heard:
And the stars keeled over cut cards
And the dealer set a fire for the cops
"Where have you gone
What have you done
Are you wearing a wire
Are you even aware
Where have you gone
What have you done
Are you wearing a wire
Are you wearing a wire
Will you show me where"
