Fish

Hey Ocean!

I dream the cars outside my window were actually waves
Slipped in over the sill and carried me away
Swept me out to sea and that's where I stayed
Learned to live among the fish and seaweed maids

Friends with the mermaid who was secretly in love with a whale
Well that's another tale within itself
It's just that I felt so at east slipping in and out of those ocean breezes

You know some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Walking through the mountains as a child
Gasping for air
Nothing could compare to the moment we'd reach that glacier stream

And I'd plunge beneath these icy waters
Oh
I could finally breathe

Felt this release
This sweet relief
Oh
I was relieved

Felt this release
This sweet relief
Oh
I was relieved

This immediate release
This sweet relief
Oh
I was relieved
I could finally breathe

You know some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Driving through the flat plains feeling dizzy
People with me wondering why
All I could do was reply with this

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)
Ooh

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish and I need water
(I am a fish)
(I am a fish and I need water)

I am a fish
I am a fish
Perhaps the daughter of some forgotten titan

You know some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

That one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea
Some things were made for one thing
For me that one thing is the sea

Da
Da da da
