

Fall for Me First

Hey Violet

Life on half empty shoulders are heavy so is my state of mind
Try to feel better, change up the weather so why do I take the time
To criticize myself, crucify myself do I like myself
'Cause lately I've been tryna remind myself how to find myself
Don't know what else

I think I wanna fall for me first
Even when it hurts
Hold my own self-love offer, just like I deserve
'Cause second never works
And since no one can compare I wanna fall for me first

Isn't she pretty, queen of the city grew up without a care
And isn't it crazy loving her lately I take her anywhere
'Cause lovers they come and go try to hold me close
Little do they know

I think I wanna fall for me first
Even when it hurts
Hold my own self-love offer just like I deserve
'Cause second never works
And since no one can compare I wanna fall for me first
Fa la la la
Fa la la la
La la la la
I wanna fall for me first
Fa la la la
Fa la la la
La la la la
I wanna fall for me first

Daffodils on my windowsill nobody can love me how I will Baby I know (baby I know)
Body, mind, soul is intertwined never looking for my other half
This I already know

I think I wanna fall for me first
Even when it hurts
Hold my own self-love offer just like I deserve
'Cause second never works
And since no one can compare I wanna fall for me first
Fa la la la
Fa la la la
La la la la
I wanna fall for me first
Fa la la la
Fa la la la
La la la la
I wanna fall for me first
