

Never Settling Again

Hey Violet

I thought I was honest
Turns out I was toxic
Fed into my darkest thoughts
Kept starving my conscience

Not me
Getting lost inside a web
Ghosts haunt me
But I'm turning off the lights
It's daunting
How I kept myself from me this long, long, long

I'm better than I've ever been
I don't feed into my "remember when"s
Letting go of things I could've said
And I'm trying to get out of my head
I used to give them the benefit of the doubt
But I got tired of people letting me down, down
So I'm never settling again
No, I'm never settling again

Thought I knew what I wanted
All along could've stopped it
People I used to run with, yeah
Made me wonder where God is

But now I'm cruising
And I'd rather be alone than stooping
Down to levels that I just don't fuck with Stuck with people that will only break my heart

I'm better than I've ever been (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
I don't feed into my "remember when"s
Letting go of things I could've said (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
And I'm trying to get out of my head
I used to give them the benefit of the doubt
But I got tired of people letting me down, down
So I'm never settling again (Never settling again)
No, I'm never settling again

I'm never settling again
I'm never settling again
I'm better than I've ever been
No, I'm never settling again
I'm never settling again
I'm never settling again
I'm better than I've ever been
No, I'm never settling again

I'm better than I've ever been (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
I don't feed into my "remember when"s (Into my "remember when"s)
Letting go of things I could've said (Oh, whoa)
And I'm trying to get out of my head (Trying to get out of my head)
I used to give them the benefit of the doubt (Of the doubt)
But I got tired of people letting me down, down
So I'm never settling again (Never settling again)
No, I'm never settling again

(Never settling again)
(Never settling again)
