

He Can

Hezekiah Walker

Here I go again
Here I go again
Crazy to believe that God can
Here I go again
Here I go again
Crazy to believe that God can

I've been through the fire
And through the storm
I've been through the cold
You kept me warm
Never have found myself alone
Never, never, never

He can, yes He can
He will, yes He will
He can, yes He can
