

A Little Bit Older Now

Hi-Five

No one knows where we been
They only know what they see, on stage
We work so hard for our dreams
I hope that we could keep this thing together
Hmmm, make it last forever
All for one, and one for all...
We're a little bit

We're a little bit older now (Ooh, livin' road to road)
We're a little bit wiser now (Oh, stage after stage, yeah)
We're a little bit older now (Oh yeah. Yeah, yeah. Fellas)
Uh-uhh...
See we're ready to explore, all the the things that lie in stor e

We're everything we dreamed to be
We owe it to the ones who made it reality
Now that become as one
I hope that we'll keep this thing together
Ooh, make it last forever
All for one, and one for all...
We're a little bit

We're a little bit older now (Livin' road to road, yeah)
We're a little bit wiser now (Ooh, city after city ye-esss)
We're a little bit older now (Stage by stage)
Uh-huh
We're ready to explore all the things that lie in store

First of all, we'd like to thank God
We'd also like to thank our family and friends for sticking wit h us through the good and the bad

Yo
We would like to thank the radio stations for stickin' there wi th us and supportin' us by playin' our music

We would like to thank Jive Records and all of our fans who mad e us who we are
Peace
...
