

I Just Can't Handle It

Hi-Five

Her smile
She was so beautiful
The way she held me in her arms
Made me feel so young

Yo, T, you hear this, man?
J-j-just can't handle it
What was he talking about?
J-j-just can't handle it
She's too old for you, man, she's 25 years old, man
Just can't handle it
You're only 16 years old, man, what you tryna do?
J-j-just can't handle it
Come over here and sing this, man

Cutie tried to flip me
She tried to blow my mind
I was only 16, she was 25
I was walkin' to school when she caught my eye
Surely lookin' good, she was so fine

She had that funky walk, her smile
Made me wanna her her talk
She said she would do anything
Just so she could hear me scream

Just can't handle it
What am I gonna do?
Just can't handle it
What excuse could I use?
Just can't handle it
She's got me so confused
Just can't handle it

I thought she was bluffin', just messin' with my head
So I forgot about school, went to her place instead
She started to undress as I looked at her thighs
I can't pass this test 'cause this girl is so fine

She had that funky walk, her smile
Made me wanna her her talk
She said she would do anything
Just so she could hear me scream

Just can't handle it
What am I gonna do?
Just can't handle it
What excuse could I use?
Just can't handle it
She's got me so confused
Just can't handle it
J-j-just, j-just can't

She was so fine
She had that funky walk, her smile
Made me wanna her her talk
She said she would do anything

Just so she could hear me scream

Just can't handle it
What am I gonna do?
Just can't handle it
What excuse could I use?
Just can't handle it
She's got me so confused
Just can't handle it
Just can't, just can't, just, just can't handle it
What am I gonna do?
Just can't handle it
What excuse could I use?
Just can't handle it
She's got me so confused
Just can't handle it
Just can't, just can't, j-just can't handle it
I thought she was bluffin'
Just can't handle it
Just messin' with my head
Just can't handle it
I forgot all about school
Just can't handle it
And went to her place instead
J-just can't, just can't, just can't handle it
Cutie tried to flip me
Just can't handle it
She tried to blow my mind
Just can't handle it
I was only 16, and she was 25
Just can't handle it
J-just, just, just can't handle it
