

If I Was The Devil

Hi-Rez

Amen, amen
I've been lost and so afraid
Give me purpose, guide my way
Amen, amen
Help me see another day
Oh Lord, to you I pray
Amen

If I was the devil I'd make kids question they gender
Make 'em normalize sexual offenders
I'd make sinning seem cool and God seem like a fool
And tell people His commandments are a bunch of stupid rules
That are meant to be broken, the demons I've awoken
Would be at the award shows right out in the open
I'd control all celebrities and words that they've spoken
Make 'em think I'm God, I'm the real one that's chosen
Make 'em hate religion and abandon they traditions
I'd put hidden messaging in all the movies for the children
I would pick the worst people in the world as politicians
Carrying out my decisions, working for me on my mission
'Cause division in your families, normalize blasphemy
Confuse the world, make 'em live inside a false reality
Have 'em glued to they phones, feeling sad and alone
Have 'em trusting Dr Fauci and hating Robert Malone

Amen, amen
I've been lost and so afraid
Give me purpose, guide my way
Amen, amen
Help me see another day
Oh Lord, to you I pray
Amen

If I was the devil I'd put cheating in the movies
I'd make artists praise me like Sam Smith and Lil Uzi
I'd normalize being unhealthy and call it beauty
I would make sure everybody knew me and purposed me
I would make 'em all fight when they're about to unite
Make the whites hate the blacks and the blacks hate the whites
Kids will choose fame, have 'em blinded by my light
I would have 'em all thinking that the darkness seemed bright
And that good seemed evil and that evil seemed right
They should all feel my wrath and just laugh at God's smite
Infiltrate big pharma, make the cure really harm ya
I'd control the food supply and sabotage all the farmers
But I ain't the devil, I'm a God-fearing man
All I had to do was change the person in the mirror, fam
I kicked Satan out the car, I know God's steering man
Every single time I pray, I know God hear it man, amen

Amen, amen
I've been lost and so afraid
Give me purpose, guide my way
Amen, amen
Help me see another day
Oh Lord, to you I pray
Amen
