

Over It

Hi-Rez

Get the fuck up out my business, I on need your help
You say I changed, you don't even wanna be ya self
Judgin' me when you don't even go and see yourself
Every time you talk, all you do is just repeat ya self

Sick of all the criticism, sick of all the lies
Sick of givin' energy and all the wasted time
Smoking and drinking, that's why I got these faded eyes
People more afraid to live than they are afraid to die
I could smell that fake shit you talkin' from a mile away
If someone tell me it's impossible, I find a way
Wake up every single day to a lotta hate
Remember even on your best days, you still gotta pray

Stopped caring 'bout what you say
'Cause you're not gonna change my mind (Can't change my mind)
Gettin' tired of the games you play
I'm so over all the wasted time (Stop wastin' my time)
I'm so over this
Yeah, I'm so over it (So over it)
So over this
I am so over it

I'm so O-V-E-R-I-T, I'm so fuckin' over it
Say you know what's best for me but got nothin' to show for it
Think that you a God, hate to say that you not close to it
If you have a dream, better put your heart in and just go for it
Talkin' all that shit, they would all love to see me quit
Everyone got a problem with me, that's a problem they should fix
I don't care, that's they fault
Hit my phone, ignore they calls
Pick myself up when I fall, I do not need none of y'all
Thinkin' I care about your opinion's a mistake
Spendin' all that time flexin' on the internet, you fake
Y'all chasin' things that when you die you can't even take
It's about how many lives you changed, not about how much dough you make, Re
