

A Life for Yourself

Hibria

Why are you so lonely?
Why cannot you stand on your feet?
Do you fight for money?
Believe, that's your insecurity

Feels like you're failing
That your desires are not enough to make you strong to break yo ur dread and win
The ground is moving, in higher levels, time to uncover your de ep scars
Face the past to move on with your life

Your life is flying away - You're holding on to Your life is flying away - Your consciousness
Your life is flying away - You're holding on to
Your life is flying away - To live a life for yourself

Why are you so lonely?
Why cannot you stand on your feet? (A life for yourself)
Do you fight for money?

Your life is flying away - You're holding on to
