

Sailing Ship

Hibria

There's something missing, I can feel now
It's something that rides myself
This ship has sailed for so long
Just crashed right into a shelf

All those nights I prayed for a way to go
All those days are gone I don't care no more

But here inside my heart

I'll never forget
Those dreams inside me
I'll never forget
Those dreams inside me, no

Unbroken - I always thought I'd be the one
Unspoken - I tried to speak but words have gone
Survivor - It's always hard to say farewell
Confusion - this is a story hard to tell

All those nights I prayed for a way to go
All those days are gone brighter days may come

But here inside my heart

I'll never forget
Those dreams inside me
I'll never forget
Those dreams inside me, no
