

Souls Ain't for Sale

Hibria

I was born to win but for them I'm just a picture
I will do what I like - and I won't lose a good time

I sure know what I need to say
All those figures won't knock me down
I'm not a fool! I'm the host of the show!

I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
The stage is my prize
Souls ain't for sale
I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
Souls ain't for sale

Giving up is not a choice but for them I'm just a figure
I will play what I like - I won't lose a good time

I sure know what I need to say
All those figures won't knock me down
I'm not a fool! I'm the host of the show!

I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
The stage is my prize
Souls ain't for sale
I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
Souls ain't for sale

Some friends won't hold me now
I know the price I'll pay
My heart told me: "Don't hear their voices"
(I'm) about to feel I'm lonely again

All reasons to fly - There's no reason to mind
I'm feeling like a blessed man flying - No

I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
The stage is my prize
Souls ain't for sale
I've fallen once
I've fallen twice
Souls ain't for sale

All reasons to fly - There's no reason to mind
All reasons to fly - There's no reason to hide
All reasons to fly - There's no reason to cry
All reasons to fly - There's no reason to die
