

War Cry

Hibria

Stop now and realize
There is darkness surrounding our lives (stop!)
Dividing the ones who wants to rule
By the ego or by the truth

They don't care if you fall on the ground
Mesmerizing selfish sensation
Blinded by power, money, and greed
It's a welcome to insanity

Have we lost our sense of life and humanity?
Shall we keep looking with dismay?
Or shall we push and set us free?

Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies
There's a path that leads us to progress
Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies
Let 'em know now
Let 'em feel now
Let 'em hear our war cry!

Scream loud!
Don't let them pass
Hold on tight, time will rip them as glass (scream!)
Trespassing the barrier of the mind
Face this hate, unconscious, unkind

No one will keep us quiet by lies
There is no more this fake domination
Mark my words as they see our rise
World has changed just like the mankind

Have we lost our sense of life and humanity?
Shall we keep looking with dismay?
Or shall we push and set us free?

Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies
There's a path that leads us to progress
Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies
Let 'em know now and hear our war cry
Let 'em know now
Let 'em feel now
Let 'em hear our war cry!

Have we lost our sense of life and humanity?
Shall we keep looking with dismay?
Or shall we push and set us free?

Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies
There's a path that leads us to progress
Stand now
You can raise your voice up to the skies

Let 'em know now and hear our war cry
Let 'em know now
Let 'em feel now
Let 'em hear our war cry!
