

Hear Me Out

Hidden in Plain View

This is the price we pay for running away
(Running Away) From everyone, from everything
Big city skylines set in our sights
So the hope in our hearts is the only thing to get them back

Cause all we need is something to hold onto Something to believe

This is my life I'm living
Hey now, hear me out
This is my chance to be anything that I have dreamed up
in my head
It's all up in the clouds
Screaming out "I'm never coming back down"

So take your optimistic thoughts in your head
And just throw them against the wall
Shatter them all, break them all
Take control and face any opposition
With your head up, headstrong

Cause I'll be leaving
I've been patient for thoughts too long
"So long"

This is my life I'm living
Hey now, hear me out
This is my chance to be anything that I have dreamed up
in my head
It's all up in the clouds
Screaming out "I'm never coming back down"

Back down to here
Back to all over, I won't forget where I've come from
This is for all and us and all the rest at DTR you all know who you are
This is for Eva and the dreams we made together, forever
And there's five dreamers on a stage
Pouring their hearts out for you only
Third times a charm
For whatever we are here together
Oh, one more time
One more time tonight

Hey now, hey now
Hey now, hey now
This is my life I'm living
Hey now, hear me out
This is my chance to be everything that I've dreamed up in my head and up in the clouds to rain on

Hey now, hey now
Hey now, hey now
Hey now, hey now
