

Welllllllll alright hold tight
My rhymes are bright bold light shining on MC's who bite Impairing the eyesight, quite a few niggaz feel it but conceal it, I need to get a club to stop them from stealing it

Some of them Hiero principalities
Gotta light it up like a pyro amongst dry leaves
Sucka niggaz in denial and I know why
Cause they never seen a rival who rhyme so fly
In defense of, in the sense of rockin the mic with intents of invoking my unspoken title Rhymes are shinin like the finest diamonds
I guess I'm liable for what they do to a rival
Hip-Hop survival, soaring like a spiral Rotating rough rhymes with no hatin, while you niggaz actin silly like, "So Casual hard?"
They ain't knowin that I'm sewin up the block like the National Guard
I be doin the SAMMME shit, most niggaz do
I'll blast a nigga ass quick as you
But that's not what I'm about, you can put me in a rhymin bout
Turn it out with-out no problem
MC's is like chemicals, watch me dissolve em
Petty individuals infestin hip-hop
I leave em all over the floor like cigar intestines
You better count your blessings, it amounts to less than zero, the Hiero hero
Hieroglyphic sequence hittin with rhymes that are regal
And we know...

Hey now, c'mon huh (HIERO)
What? (GLYPHICS)
C'mon c'mon (HIERO)
What you say? (GLYPHICS)

It's on in this motherfker, yea
