

Only will I broken hearted
I will listen, I will listen
Well and truly
Wash right through my soul

Another minute
another minute more
I was lost in you
let the evening fall
Sunday morning
Sunday morning comes
The more I love you
The more I ever long
You find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home

Give me silent, perfect vision
I will listen, I will listen
Press it to me
Feel it senselessly

Another minute
another minute more
Just see me lost in you
let the evening fall
Sunday morning
If Sunday morning comes
The more I love you
More I ever long
To find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home

To find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home
You find us and bring us home
