

Tough Guy

High on Fire

Sitting rusty on a fire machine
A lift of light is gonna build her back clean
Stoking the coals, gonna let this fucker scream
Grabbing the cash, gonna play the future mean
Look out

Pushing the pawn, gonna play the gambit queen
Desires traded when you've seen what I've seen
My call indifferent with an aging machine
We're sitting rusty on a fire machine
Go flow

Forever wreck her, you can look inside your creed
Popping the clutch, you can hear your demon speed
Crank out the stones, can't ignore the devil's deeds
We're sitting nowhere, rusty fire machine
Go flow
