

Not Yet

High Valley

Moon is on the water and the water's just right
Holding on to something that's holding me tight
Stars start to flicker like an old porch light
But no I don't wanna go yet

Weeping willow falling for a midnight breeze
Lightning bugs play a little hide and seek
Got all the makin's of a memory
No I don't wanna go yet

Not yet not yet not yet not yet
No I don't wanna go yet
Not yet not yet not yet not yet
No I don't wanna go yet

I've got some hallelujah waiting on the other side
I wanna get there but I'm gonna take my sweet time
Living in this moment like there's only one left
No I don't wanna go yet

Trying not to let another day go by Saving up the minutes and stealing time
Can't live forever but we'll still die tryin
No I don't wanna go yet

Not yet not yet not yet not yet
No I don't wanna go yet
Not yet not yet not yet not yet
No I don't wanna go yet

I've got some hallelujah waiting on the other side
I wanna get there but I'm gonna take my sweet time
No I don't wanna go yet

Life is for living
Love is for giving
Oh all I want is just one more minute.
No I don't want
No I don't wanna
No I don't wanna go yet

Life is for living
Love is for giving
Oh all I want is just one more minute.
No I don't want
No I don't wanna
No I don't wanna go yet
