

Run Outta Somedays

High Valley

Time is a highway, only runs one way
Ain't no breaks can't stop that train
Young summers drag like honeycomb dripping
Till the years start dropping like harvest rain

Some night like tonight
Might be that one that got away
Love wild, don't wait
Some day's gonna be too late

Someday's come, someday's go
Someday ya gonna run outta road
Don't wait on forever, forever don't wait
Someday you gonna run outta somedays

If I'd known that house wouldn't always be home
I'd a spent more minutes on that oak tree swing
But dreams are feathers in a dirt road dust storm
Better get to chasin' 'fore they fly away

Some night like tonight
Might be that one that got away
Love wild, don't wait
Some day's gonna be too late

Someday's come, someday's go
Someday ya gonna run outta road
Don't wait on forever, forever don't wait
Someday you gonna run outta somedays

Mama's have babies
Babies grow up
Leave that old town in a hand-me-down truck
Daddy's start slipping
Mirrors turn grey
Someday you gonna run outta

Some night like tonight
Might be that one that got away
Love wild, don't wait
Some day's gonna be too late

Someday's come, someday's go
Someday ya gonna run outta road
Don't wait on forever, forever don't wait
Someday you gonna run outta somedays
