

Down To You

High Vis

Close your eyes, lose yourself in your history
You only see what you want to see
Dreams of emptiness, all came through
And every pitfall simmers all down to you
Down to you
Down to you

Kind eyes from time to time
Hid what you had inside
A push for emptiness, all came through
And every pitfall simmers all down to you

Kind eyes from time to time
Hid what you had inside
A quest for emptiness, all came through
And every pitfall simmers all down to you
Down to you

Down to you
Down to you
Down to you
