

Fill The Gap

High Vis

Please, don't say a thing
I know the pain that knowing always brings
Trauma forms an almost perfect ring

You, you don't need to tell
There's nothing worse than knowing me so well
And everyone gets their own special hell

A secret thing we can't regain
Just enough to dull the pain
Just enough to dull our

I don't wanna hurt you anymore (Hurt you anymore)
But it's the only thing you know that works for sure

Please, don't say a thing
I know the pain that knowing always brings
I, I can fill in the gaps
You don't say a word, I'll guess the rest

Everyone needs something on their
I need something heavy on my chest

I don't wanna hurt you anymore (Hurt you anymore)
But it's the only thing you know that works for sure
I don't wanna hurt you anymore (Hurt you anymore)
But it's the only thing you know that works for sure

The only thing you know that works for (The only thing you know that works for)
The only thing you know that works for (The only thing you know that works for)
The only thing you know that works for (The only thing you know
that works for)
The only thing you know that works for
