

Autopsy

Highasakite

I'm unidentified
He keeps pushing my eyes
He's so electrified
Analyzing

Exploding dynamites in front of my eyes, but I'm still alive
I just brush it right off
Dynamite and I'm so high I can move the moon now

I'm so mysterious
He keeps touching my thighs
He's so mesmerized
Investigating

Exploding dynamites in front of my eyes, but I'm still alive
I just brush it right off
Dynamite and I'm so high I can move the moon

I can hear my man
Hear him toss and turn
While the city's burning
And I'm tearing down the walls

I can hear my man
Hear him toss and turn
While the city's burning
And I'm tearing down the walls

I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away

I'm so ambiguous
He keeps checking my pulse
He's so hypnotized
Examination

Dynamite in front of my eyes, but I'm still alive
I just brush it right off
Dynamite and I'm so high

I can hear my man
Hear him toss and turn
While the city's burning
And I'm tearing down the walls

I can hear my man
Hear him toss and turn
While the city's burning
And I'm tearing down the walls

Dynamite in front of my eyes, but I'm still alive
I just brush it right off
Dynamite and I'm so high

Exploding dynamites in front of my eyes, but I'm still alive

I just brush it right off
Dynamite and I'm so high I can move the moon

I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna walk away
