

But, I loved

Highasakite

I think he can lift a whole house
Balance on a rope from one mountain to another
But not say he's sorry
I think he can build his own town
I think he can hear the rain before it drops
But not hear me crying

(But, I loved)
The sun in my eyes
(But, I loved)
I dove into the skies and I burned
(But, I loved)
The countless of nights
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love

(But, I loved)
The sun in my eyes
(But, I loved)
I dove into the skies and I burned
(But, I loved)
The countless of nights
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love

I know he can raise his voice
Holler from the top of Mount Everest to our house
But not say you're sorry

(But, I loved)
The sun in my eyes
(But, I loved)
I dove into the skies and I burned
(But, I loved)
The countless of nights
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love

(But, I loved)
The sun in my eyes
(But, I loved)
I dove into the skies and I burned
(But, I loved)
The countless of nights
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love

(But, I loved)
(But, I loved)
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love
(But, I loved)
(But, I loved)
And the only thing I didn't give him was love
(But, I loved)
(But, I loved)
