

Iran

Highasakite

It's common sense, a moral stand
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
I'll bring some booze and go on a bender
And I'll befriend a married man

It's common news, it's common sense
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
It's common news, it's common sense
That I could lose my own two hands

It's common sense, a moral stand
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
I'll bring some booze and go on a bender
And I'll befriend a married man

It's common news, it's common sense
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
It's common news, it's common sense
That I could lose my own two hands

It's common sense, a moral stand
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
I'll bring some booze and go on a bender
And I'll befriend a married man

Iraaan, Iraaan, Iraaan
Iraaan, Iraaan, Iraaan

It's common sense, a moral stand
But if I could choose, I'd go to Iran
I'll bring some booze and go on a bender
And I'll befriend a married man
