

Through Tunnels and Towns

Highasakite

Heels are cracking, I am walking here with no shoes
Crossing borders, I am headed to the north
I have no compass, just signs along the highway
I'm leaving nothing, I'm aiming at your house, my love

Through tunnels and towns, woo
Like magnetic sand, woo
I want to come to you
I want to come to you

Through tunnels and towns, woo
Like magnetic sand, woo
I want to come to you
I want to come to you

Rain is pouring and hitting me hard as hail
I walk through forests and following every trail
I am following, just me across the borders
And I left nothing behind, I'm aiming at your house, my love

Through tunnels and towns, woo
Like magnetic sand, woo
I want to come to you
I want to come to you

Through tunnels and towns, woo
Like magnetic sand, woo
I want to come to you
I want to come to you

(Want to come to you)
(Want to come to you)
