Look, you ask me if I'm headed to heaven
Oh nuh nuh, I'd rather head back to the playground
Yo yo yo, it's time to make a wish
Oh yeah yeah, I need the formula to make me stronger
Oh, Isabel, I'm not talking about European girls

It's flying low, no one will take its toll
According to legend it resides in the Alps
A rare butterfly, spacing out in the Edelweiss
Isabellae, Isabellae, it only has 3 days
By the time I found you I was already beaten and bruised
You said I gotta face the bottleneck myself
Don't always be out of range and out of service
A broken cocoon, blue flames
When the mountain cracked and the earth opened up
It flew into the air and was called talent
But no one cares about the difficulties it faced

Clouds, fog, reality, I heard you in a dream
Pursuit, approach, the cuckoos sing for me
Sometimes I feel empty, it's not easy
I never know exhaustion, I run like a perpetual machine
If only there's only 18 switchbacks up the mountain, it's still a hard journey
Like a moth burning in the flame, I give myself for eternal beauty
I've crossed rivers and plains, stood at the top of a mountain
I've watched the stars change position, in between life and death
I've crossed an oasis, not worried where I'll sleep
Spent half my youth looking for my Isabellae
Hiding at the end of my dreams, hibernation, 3 months of splendor
As soon as it blossoms it's already over, another century
In the end, I'm still waiting for you
I believe that ancient legends are maybe true
I do it, I've never regretted anything, that's right
If you're open and honest, why would you regret

I'm lucky I became a star, in this moment
I can't calm down, so I put on a song
I turned off friend requests, young soldiers salute me
Coming from a place of purity, I'm getting ready
I'm going to create wealth worth greater than diamonds
From Tiandi Clan to CDC, I'm becoming this city's biggest rapper with worldwide influence
People that don't feel me keep throwing shade
If you haven't failed you can't call it perfect
Just like you can't talk back when you're wasted
A real man never goes back on his word
I swear I must become number one
Live like a soldier with bullets in my gun
Isabellae please tell me what to do
It said, let it be because time will tell
