I swear I'm a prodigy
The way you look at me is changing

From envy to admiration, those fake friends
Told me bye bye
Let's sleep till our butts get tanned by the sun
The alarm goes off, I smash it with my foot
Lucky light spills in from the balcony
All the necessary requirements for a new day

Everyday I wake up and want you to put me in your mouth
I don't see nothing wrong
I don't see nothing wrong
Captain America sent us an email inviting us to visit S.H.I.E.L.D
I don't see nothing wrong
I don't see nothing wrong

Hey girl, watch me
I'm nicer than other rappers
I promise you'll feel perfect everyday
Your man can only accompany you on a never-ending bad trip
Take it off quickly, woah, more and more skills
Waiting for you to ring the doorbell, woah, I'll give you a taste of me lett ing loose

I don't see nothing wrong, bed breaking
I don't see nothing wrong, depends on my mood
I don't see nothing wrong, no no
I don't see nothing wrong, okay

Looked through the binoculars
The next island is close to us
I can hear your love
It gives me strength from head to toe
Too many people want to be the One Piece, I already found the hidden treasur e
Yeah, hiding in storm clouds, waiting for the lightning bolt to hit me

I don't see nothing wrong tonight
I don't see nothing wrong, that's right
I don't see nothing wrong tonight
I don't see nothing wrong

I swear I'm a prodigy
The way you look at me is changing
