Yoooo

Don't be like this
Yo, listen to me, listen to me baby
Nah nah, I ain't trippin'

Yeah, yeah
I promise I'm more than the talent you see
I seize your TV, blame me for getting into character so easily
I turned rude because you told me not to be polite
I'm thinking about more than just making love with you
Come on, slow down your step
I don't want our relationship to get more complicated
Let's go on vacation to the north side of Taipei
Your smile is small like Mona Lisa's
Is this okay? Can you relax please?
I promise after today I'll never go to the bar
What's wrong with me? I'm begging you
All these people are watching, just go with me
I like to look at other girls, but it's just looking
This hot weather gets my hormones pumping
If I can think of it, it's so easy, effortless
But I'm just pretending you've got no one to compare to
Hey

Trickery, we all know it but we don't wanna show our cards
Trickery, you get it, let's see who's most amazing, I'll win your trust
Trickery, it's offensive, I'm sorry if I hurt you
I don't wanna trick you, it's pathetic
So please don't turn a blind eye

Clap your hand like this
Clap your hand like this
Baby, clap your hand like this
Yeah

You're gonna sneeze 'cause I'm thinking of you
You can be my Mona Lisa, I can be your da Vinci
An age gap isn't a problem for me
My last name plus your first name, sounds much better
Hey oh, hey oh
Melt your icy glacier, who says I'm hot like fire?
