Ah-hah

I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I open, I open, I open WeChat

Friends' circle sell designer clothes that are made of mink
Chicken soup for the soul* has no effect on you
The opportunity to make money is mine and not yours, there's no time
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
And finally, she became a purchaser
I couldn't persuade her to stay, photo album showed the before and after of plastic surgery
I'm too lazy to delete 90 pieces of trash
Online friends catfighting, laughing while sitting on the hill watching tige rs fight
Request for the patterns of my routine
Not careful in exposing, then no smooth sailing
One thousand contacts and 900 hot girls
I'm still single at the moment but white comes out of the mix

All the girls like to talk dirty to me because I'm a Scorpio
It just passed 3:05, I'm ready to start writing tracks
No breaks for messages to disturb me
I ran to escape the girls' heads, the girls all get reeled in Received a concert fee, too lazy to return the call
There's been a lot of things to do recently
There's a lot of things to do
Say it before you ask yourself
Just don't wanna listen, just don't wanna see
Unless you're with us discussing business
They're always glued to their screens
You can come find me, why didn't you say it earlier?
Whatever happened today was no coincidence

I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I open, I open, I open and open and open
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I open, I open, I open, I open

I wish you all would stop bothering me
No objectives, don't bother me
No self-control, don't bother me
Like telling lies, don't bother me
I just wanna be alone
Music is my doctor
Mariah Carey, Coco Lee
The lies of women are so clear
I wanna go to sleep, mute the phone
Look at WeChat tomorrow morning
Full of expectation, find out when you wake up
It's all rumors just spreading around
Ha, you sell your goods for yourself
Ha, he told me to send red envelopes
Ha, I finished reading all the bullshit
Raised my eyebrows

Found out after I took out my phone
More than 90 unread messages
Didn't find out that I unexpectedly was one of them
More anxious than my mother
Can't feel out my traces, work is my motivation
My time is like steel and concrete
There are no cracks between them
Silent pieces of glass
Don't try to call me
No one is able to
Even you aren't able to, I still have things to do
Slowly get jealous, spend more time trying and practicing
Persisting for a long time leads to progress

I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I open, I open, I open and open and open
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I don't open WeChat to see your bullshit
I open, I open, I open, I open

Run away, run away, to somewhere far
I hunt for your chains instead of your life
Ice on my wrist, ice cube fist
Sub-Zero on my neck, Mortal Kombat
What? (Mortal Kombat, gling)
My wrist is drippin' with bloody tears
There's a Grim Reaper callin' me from afar
Jewels on my wrist
Look at my fist, it's a ring of jewelry rings
If you ain't killin' me, I kill you
I know the truth
Blow up my presence in the world
Everyone witnessed me like a UFO
My ninjas wanna do slay
Hoe ninjas better do pray
I got some ninjas in Asia
They don't play, but you trying to play
My friends don't go around holdin' a toy
The magazine's too heavy to be a toy
If you keep messing around without fear
Your head full of that mess will get bust open
But if you don't believe it what are you going to do, come at me
All my ninjas plowed Backwoods

Drop the Valium in my underwater
I walk like I'm in water when I'm not in water
I'm smokin', drinkin' drunk
Always drinkin' drunk
Still drinkin' drunk
I'm too drunk to move
Even though I'm drunk on everything
There's no need to worry
Because I somehow eventually
Go to the end and get it all
Everything in my hands
I tour often to China
With VPN I'm finessin'
WeChat I'm also finessin'
Stop BB, lil bitch, that shit got me stressin'
