

Will We Be Again

Highland Glory

In my dreams I have seen future and past
Love that is lost, dreams turn to shades
Where are you now, can we be like this once again

Lost in your touch I was little and scared
And I used to feel empty inside
I'm waiting to see eternity with you
In my mind our love is true

Thinking of the sunset we once shared in a dream
I have held your hand all through
And through the darkness and divinest light
Will we be again

I turn out the lights, another day has gone
I wake up to see, if you are here with me
Is it real or are you here in my own fantasy

I wake up early then I turn on the lights
To find that you were never here
Am I going insane, can this be real
Have I lost you for all time
