Why are there so many things that catch my heart?

You're not even that far away

From inside my house to the front of my house,

Anywhere I go, I think of you

It's alright,

I will need to look for a girl to cover your shadow

Everyone says

That the way you get over a girl is through a new girl

Being sad is only momentary,

I will go back to the times before I met you

As if everything was like nothing

Honestly, it's sad that you're not by my side anymore

It's a bit hard but

Gonna be alright, everything will be alright

Nothing will happen to me just because you're not here

Gonna be alright, don't misunderstand

There are a lot of girls like you

But it's true that I did love you

I faltered for a day or two because of you but today,

I will smile

I will erase you, who was so thick and deep in me

It's gonna be alright (It's gonna be alright)

At this time tomorrow, I won't have you anymore

I can ignore it but I check

Your messenger status every time you change it

People who are following you don't stop,

Your friend list is filled with guys

F' nervous, I get mad for no reason

When I can just ignore you, whatever you do

We're strangers now but at my anger,

I meet a girl that I don't even like

Being sad is only momentary,
I will go back to the times before I met you
As if everything was like nothing
Honestly, it's sad that you're not by my side anymore
It's a bit hard but

Gonna be alright, everything will be alright
Nothing will happen to me just because you're not here
Gonna be alright, don't misunderstand
