Can You Feel It?
We're Coming For You
There's no more long waits
I Feel The Same
I won't leave you alone
Anymore

It wasn't easy coming back
With my ears and eyes closed
As I turned around from the scent
From the shallow deceit and lies

When I think of you
I can't rest even for a single day
As I engrave on the sky
The day we meet again

Everyone's eyes are filled with doubt
Actually, I was afraid of everything
I thought we'd never see each other again
But I'm with you now
I don't want anything else

Can You Feel It?
We're Coming For You
There's no more long waits
I Feel The Same
I won't leave you alone
Anymore
I Promise You

The more time pushed me
The more I got impatient
My heart that wants you
Every time I felt it weakening
I think of that moment
The thick color of gray light
I hear those shouts

Everyone's eyes are filled with worry
I was afraid I would disappear like this

I thought we'd never see each other again
But I'm with you now
I don't want anything else

Can You Feel It?
We're Coming For You
There's no more long waits
I Feel The Same
I won't leave you alone
Anymore
I Promise You

Now nothing
Can keep us apart
Forever Together
That word is for you and me
Now nothing
Can keep us apart
Forever Together
That word is for you and me

Now nothing
Can keep us apart
Forever Together
That word is for you and me
Now nothing
Can keep us apart
Forever Together
That word is for you and m
