You wanna say encore core core
Once more, say one more more more
You're clearly
Trippin trippin now trippin trippin now over me
You wanna say encore core core

It's crazy hot in here uh,
Take off what you have on
You're not the only one who's crazy,
Those quiet kids over there are more freakin'
Swimming swimming, this is a beach within the city
Don't keep looking at your watch
Because the sun won't rise till the music is over

Swaying and making making moves
So that I can see you among the many people
Burn it up right now, there's not much time
Show me yourself a bit more

When the time is up, you will shout out
You wanna say encore encore
I want you too,
We want each other, so have me
Come a little bit closer

You wanna say encore core core
Once more, say one more more more
You're clearly
Trippin trippin now trippin trippin now over me
You wanna say encore core core

The night grows a little deeper
And we get a bit deeper too
Awkwardness only lasts for a moment,
There's no time to hesitate
When this night is over,
You will look for me once more

Swaying and making making moves
So that I can see you among the many people
Burn it up right now, there's not much time
Show me yourself a bit more

When the time is up, you will shout out
You wanna say encore encore
I want you too,
We want each other, so have me
Come a little bit closer

C.A.R P.E. DIEM,
Seize the day because there is no tomorrow
C.A.R P.E. DIEM,
Because there's no such thing as next time or later
Touch the sky (Throw your hands up)
Touch the sky (Throw your hands up)
It just got hotter,
This atmosphere will blow the roof
And touch the sky

You wanna say encore core core
Once more, say one more more more
You're clearly
Trippin trippin now trippin trippin now over me
You wanna say encore core core

Encore core core
(Seize the day because there is no tomorrow)
Once more, Say one more more more

You're clearly
Trippin trippin now trippin trippin now over me
