Hello beautiful, you were my everything
No words could express
My love for you
You were my pride
I thought
We would last forever

But how could you
Change so coldly?
What about
All the things we shared?
If we were
Gonna end like this
We shouldn't have even started
It's driving me crazy

Take it, take it all
All the memories you left behind
Take it, take it all
All the happy memories you left behind
Take it all with you girl Take it all
Take it all with you girl Take it all

Take all the happiness from me
Take all the laughter
Take all the love, but girl
Take all the sadness too, take all the tears
Take all the pain girl

All the things that used to be pretty
They're all black black black now

The filter you put on
Is black and white
The moment you were taken from me
My battery has run out
All the songs I wrote
Has lost its muse
Oh red red red
All the half-remaining memories
You left behind
Have a red sticker on it
I don't need it now
Take it all and leave
If you're not gonna come back
Take everything with you

No matter how hard I try
I can't do as my heart says
I try locking all my thoughts
So you won't flow out again
But I can't forget you
For a single moment
Even I'm sick of myself being like this

Take it, take it all
Take it, take it all
Take it all with you girl Take it all
Take it all with you girl Take it all

We were closer
Than anyone else in the world
Now we became strangers,
As if we don't know each other
We used to care for each other,
I loved everything about you
But now whenever I think of you,
My heart aches

Take it, take it all
Take it, take it all
Take it all with you girl Take it all
Take it all with you girl Take it all

Take all the happiness from me
