(00 00 But I miss you, miss you)

You say that without me,
It's freedom (I hate you so much)
You spend days
Without me with smiles (I hate you so much)

When I think about you in another
Person's arms already, I think I'll go crazy
We both spent the same amount
Of time together but why is it only fast for you?

You're bad, bad, I hate you, hate you
You're bad, bad, but I miss you, miss you

I wish you were unhappy

So you remember the love I gave you more
So you can miss me
And come back to me again

When people asked if you were doing well,
You said you were, probably
If what we did was love,
Shouldn't you be suffering?
Why are you so okay?
Or am I just being a wuss?
From the glass that I drink because of our breakup,
My reflection doesn't look too great

When I think about you being happy
Even without me, I think I'll go crazy
I'm still stuck in that place
But why is it only fast for you?

You're bad, bad, I hate you, hate you
You're bad, bad, but I miss you, miss you

I wish you were unhappy
So you remember the love I gave you more
So you can miss me
And come back to me again

Before I erase you, before I forget everything about you
Before my tears stop, come back to me my love

You're bad, bad, I hate you, hate you
You're bad, bad, but I miss you, miss you

I wish you were unhappy
So you remember the love I gave you more
So you can miss me
And come back to me again

(Bad, bad but I miss you, miss you)
