

Big Bear

Highly Suspect

Sleeping in the daytime
Running in the moonlight
Under the northern sky
I've seen a lot of big bears
Step into the cross hairs
But I could not tell you why

So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes

Listen to the wind blow
She's picking up her tempo
It makes me feel alive
When I am the big bear
I'll step outside the cross hairs
'Cause this bear will not die

So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes
So, open (open) up your eyes

I'm giving all I can...
All I can...
All I can...
All I, oh, oh, oh, oh (can...)
