

One Day The Sun Will Explode

Highly Suspect

Deep in the ground
With the sounds, that I hear
What I must do
I must do, without fear

Oh, no, the seconds are passing you by
Oh, oh, then get ready to fly

We're coming through, and we're coming to stay
Nothing's gonna stop us today
We'll tear down these walls, with our own bare hands
Cause nothing's gonna stop us today

Bleed through my mouth, bled right out
There's my soul
This is my heart, it's a rock
And it's cold

Don't, stop, reaching for all of your dreams
Don't, stop, fighting for what you believe

We're coming through, we're coming to stay
Nothing's gonna stop us today
We'll tear down these walls, with our own bare hands
Cause nothing's gonna stop us today
