

I Just Don't Love The Man

Highway 101

My friends all tell me, girl, he's a keeper
Don't you let him slip through your hands
He's a real good catch, but I just don't love the man
He's good-lookin', he's smart, he's got a kind heart
And his future is so perfectly planned
He's a real sweet lover, but I just don't love the man

I can't explain it logically
There just ain't no chemistry
It even came as a surprise to me
Cause I really like him a lot

But I just don't love the man
And I still don't understand
I know I should, but I just don't love the man

My heart sees clearly all of the mysteries
That my mind can't understand
And my heart says watch it girl, you don't love the man
It's not him, it's not me, it's just the wrong recipe
And I'd be a fool to pretend
And say that I do when I just don't love the man

At first I thought he was heaven sent
But there's a missing ingredient
Now I finally put my finger on it
And I I hate to admit it

But I just don't love the man
And I still don't understand
But I show it when I don't, and I just don't love the man

No I don't
I know I should but I just don't love the man
I know I should but I just don't love the man
