

Roommates

Hilary Duff

I can barely mention it without causing some ego trauma
But I know you're sensing how I'm tryna give you hints
Physical affection goes a long way with me, I don't wanna
Quietly resent you, I just want the easy fix

But life is lifing and pressure is pressuring me
Oh, I wish that I could catch you in the right light

I only want the beginning, I don't want the end
Want the part where you say goddamn
Back of a dive bar, giving you head
Then sneak home late, wake up your roommates
Want the highlights, ten out of ten
The butterflies from holding your hand
Before we swept us under the bed
And we became practically roommates
I'm touching myself by the front door
But you don't even look my way no more

Maybe like the stars at noon
You won't come out until you're ready
But here I am telling you don't put off the night too long
And I know we would laugh if I tried walking in in something sexy
But I don't wanna beg you, I know you know what I want

But life is lifing and pressure is pressuring me
Oh, I wish that I could catch you in the right light

I only want the beginning, I don't want the end
Want the part where you say goddamn
Back of a dive bar, giving you head
Then sneak home late, wake up your roommates
Want the highlights, ten out of ten
The butterflies from holding your hand
Before we swept us under the bed
And we became practically roommates
I'm touching myself, looking at porn
'Cause you don't even look my way no more

I wanna stay your new girl
Always-think-I'm-cute girl
Only in the whole world
I'm paranoid of new girls
All the shiny cute girls
God, it makes my head swirl

I only want the beginning, I don't want the end
Want the part where you say goddamn
Back of a dive bar, giving you head
Then sneak home late, wake up your roommates
Want the highlights, ten out of ten
The butterflies from holding your hand
Before we swept us under the bed
And we became practically roommates
I'm touching myself by the front door
But you don't even look my way no more

You don't even look my way no more
