

I Surrender

Hillsong Live

You're softening my heart
To the knowledge of Your love
And opening my eyes
You light the way to love You
Words alone cannot express
All the hope that You have placed
Within me
In between each heartbeat Lord
I surrender

You gently pick me up
Wash me with Your love
And opening my ears
You speak the word
Healing releasing all the hurts and fears
By the hope that You have placed
Within me
In between each heartbeat Lord
I surrender

I surrender to You
I surrender to You
Everything I am
And ever hope to be
I surrender to You
