

Back to Life

Hillsong Young & Free

Here in my heart You have found Your place
Replacing fear with Your freedom
You lift me up
You lift me up

When all seems lost in my brokenness
I call Your Name and You answer
Held by Your love
Held by Your love

In the night
Through the struggle, through the trial
You have made my burden light
You have brought me back to life again

Your love it wipes every tear away
You calm the storms that surround me
You carry me
You carry me

Your light breaks through in my darkest hour
Your love is strong in my weakness
You are enough
You are enough

You won't let go
So I will follow
All I am
Yours now and forever
You won't let go
So I will follow
With all I am

In the night
Through the struggle, through the trial
You have made my burden light
You have brought me back to life again

You won't let go
So I will follow
All I am
Yours now and forever
You won't let go
So I will follow
With all I am
[x2]

In the night
Through the struggle, through the trial
You have made my burden light
You have brought me back to life again
