

Naked

Hilltop Hoods

My, my, my!
What a world we live in!
Where people just wanna break all of us down to our flesh
How much, how little
They grunt, they whistle
When it's pressed against some fishnets
I don't even think it's sex
I'm starting to think it's power
When a creepy little face is pressed against the window in your shower

On the street or on the screen
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked
In the flesh or in a dream
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked

Y'all need a therapist
There's innuendos in all your sentences
The apex predators
Better rapping than safe sex with latex fetishes
That's what the problem is
If I'm naked I ain't got a lot to give
Just saying I'm staying body positive
Trying to get to home base like a foster kid

This body won't pay my rent
It's softer than a 'break up' text
Don't want to make the same regrets
I'd rather you argue for make-up sex

Y'all seeking approval?
Pubis groomed, it's like the fleece of a poodle
From beautiful through to unusual
Bury the hatchet, we'll drink at the funeral

On the street or on the screen
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked
In the flesh or in a dream
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked

Well, well, got a new invite
Hey girl, what's the mood and vibe?
There's a party for you and I?
Dress code: birthday suit and tie
Don't want to be overdramatic
How'd I possibly know you're a catfish?
Your overkill tactics are so prey mantis
It's as if that it's
They wanna see me naked?

Man, you a bunch of perverts
And I bet that I can prove which of you is You're the ones that took offence that I called you a pervert
'Cause that's what you is

And I'm not here to judge
Not a prude, got my own proclivities
You'd be hard up to make me blush
But a nude is forever
No diggity

Social media's the new pornographer
Now we're all our own photographer
The Internet's an elephant, it never forgets
Get intimate and then you get a set of regrets

They wanna like, they wanna favorite
Want a batch of your nudes
They want you naked as the day that you were born
Man, it's true that

On the street or on the screen
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked
In the flesh or in a dream
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked

Go, shorty, it's your birthday suit they all wanna see you in
Get naughty in the worst way
Oof! They all wanna see your skin
Go, shorty, it's your birthday suit they all wanna see you in
Get naughty in the worst way
'Cause all they really want is

On the street or on the screen
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked
In the flesh or in a dream
All they really wanna see is you naked
They wanna see you naked
