

After Time

HIMALAYAS

When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
Should you like to see the pictures that I draw?
They're not very good

Time after time after time
We reach out and we watch it disappear
Time after time after time
I wonder what the hell I'm doing here

Night falls and I don't think I've felt so alive
In all of my life
But it won't suffice
Don't try to number your sins
Before you die, you'll run out of time
You'll run out of...

Time after time after time
We reach out and we watch it disappear
Time after time after time
I wonder what the hell I'm doing here

You're just waiting for the end
You're just waiting for the end
But do you really know or do you just pretend?
With all that said still

Time after time after time
We reach out and we watch it disappear
Time after time after time
I wonder what the hell I'm doing here

When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
When is a secret, not a secret anymore?
