

Alone

HIMALAYAS

Over and over
As we run through this hallway
A drop in the ocean
Beneath the dirt from which we came

And under the curtains
The light slowly creeps in
From above the despair
Comes quietly calling

Headfirst
Where no one knows
Maybe we're better off alone
Straight ahead
To the unknown
Maybe we're better off alone

Harder and harder
As the light catches your eyes
We can't get much closer
But there's still something we can't find

And under the curtains
The light slowly creeps in
From above the despair
Comes quietly calling

Headfirst
Where no one knows
Maybe we're better off alone
Straight ahead
To the unknown
Maybe we're better off alone
