

Into The Trap

HIMALAYAS

Piss wet through under the cloud of self reflection
Proudly soaked from hat to heel
Let the rain fall, we go the same direction
It reminds me how I'm meant to feel

We don't want everything, we just want to know
What the morning will bring when the nightmare grows

And when the night comes do your secrets come back to haunt you

Solitary moments in the darkness, another door shuts
And when the night comes do your secrets come back to haunt you

Solitary moments in the darkness, another door shuts

I don't know if the night is out to get me
But I'll probably let it if it comes
Blue skies have always tried to tempt me
Until I paint them the colour of blood

We don't want everything, we just want to know
What the morning will bring when the nightmare grows
We don't want everything, we just want to know
What the morning will bring when the nightmare grows

And when the night comes do your secrets come back to haunt you

Solitary moments in the darkness, another door shuts
And when the night comes do your secrets come back to haunt you

Solitary moments in the darkness, another door shuts
