

Nothing Higher

HIMALAYAS

Good evening, Monday morning
Something new struck me today
The answers may be coming, but they take too long

Naturally disastrous to only feel this way
But somebody told these people that they're never wrong

My love you hurt and move me like an animal
I don't believe in something higher
My love, you hurt and move me like an animal
I don't believe in something higher

My head is splitting open with the ground beneath my feet
Reason may have entered
But it's been and gone

All of these discrepancies are traceable to me
Cause somebody told these people that they're never wrong

My love, you hurt and move me like an animal
I don't believe in something higher
My love, you hurt and move me like an animal
I don't believe in something higher

(Nothing higher, nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher)

For your information
I was trying to catch a glint in your eye
My only explanation
Is to find out if you're going to be mine

Meet me at the station
We can find a place and talk 'til closing time
A little conversation
Is the closest we can get to the divine

For your information

(Nothing higher, nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher, nothing higher)
(Nothing higher, nothing higher)
