

Surrender

HIMALAYAS

I wanted to let you know you have my confidence
Say what you will and always trust in my defence
I still believe this is the end but then again
I could pretend, I still pretend, no matter what you say

I don't need another reason
To watch my hope fade away
Losing faith comes from believing
So much of nothing to say
I just can't explain this feeling
Why don't they just, why don't they just surrender?

I'm not the kind you fuck with
I'm just the kind you fuck
I'll believe in every single lie, I won't deny
I'm compromised, your words are mine
No matter what you say

I don't need another reason
To watch my hope fade away
I just can't explain this feeling
So much of nothing to say
Losing faith comes from believing
Why don't they just, why don't they just surrender?

I'm looking at me
You're looking at you
We should look at each other
What else is there to do?

I don't need another reason
To watch my hope fade away
I just can't explain this feeling
So much of nothing to say
I just can't explain this feeling
I just can't explain this feeling
I just can't explain this feeling
Why don't they just, why don't they just surrender?
