

Bad Decisions

Hinder

I fucked up again, I didn't pay my rent
I spent my last two cents on a lover
I gave up good for Lent—to hell if I'll repent
I lie to all my friends and my mother

Cold in nature, bad behavior
I'll fix the game, then raise the wager
I'm straight up hell-bent, I live and die by sin
I'll never make amends, I'd rather suffer

I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
They oughta lock me up for the way that I've been living
It's a miracle I've never been to prison
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
Every single time I find a way to ruin it all
Tear it down, light it up just to watch it fall
So if you want someone to sabotage the mission
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions

Bad, bad, bad, bad
Bad, bad, bad, bad decisions
Bad, bad, bad, bad
Bad, bad, bad

They want me in a cell—was born and raised in hell
Don't have a soul to sell, no you can't save me
I won the right to fail, I'm living off the rails
Don't count on me, I'll bail just 'cause I'm lazy
You can't fix my broken behavior
Pay it forward, I'll take the favor
A moral roach motel, I'll rob the wishing well
No, it ain't hard to tell—I'm fucking crazy

I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
They oughta lock me up for the way that I've been living
It's a miracle I've never been to prison
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
Every single time I find a way to ruin it all
Tear it down, light it up just to watch it fall
So if you want someone to sabotage the mission
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions

Bad, bad, bad, bad
Bad, bad, bad, bad decisions
Bad, bad, bad, bad
Bad, bad, bad, bad decisions

I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
They oughta lock me up for the way that I've been living
It's a miracle I've never been to prison
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions
Every single time I find a way to ruin it all
Tear it down, light it up just to watch it fall
So if you want someone to sabotage the mission
I'm getting really good at making bad decisions

Bad, bad, bad, bad

Bad, bad, bad, bad decisions
Bad, bad, bad, bad
Bad, bad, bad, bad decisions
