

Break The Cycle

Hinder

This love we lost
The time is gone
Memories sing the saddest songs
They're playing loud
I can't turn it down
You fucked me up, you fucked me good
We broke ourselves just like I always thought we would
I knew we would

Lost every shred of trust
We gave it up for lust
I watched you cut and run

I hate to see you without me
It breaks my heart but it's pounding
Baby moving on is cold
And I don't wanna die alone
I hate myself 'til I'm shaking
The pain won't numb so I'm taking anything to let you go
I just wanna die, if I have to die alone
Let's break the cycle
Break the cycle

Stuck like flies in vaseline
Can't get out, I can't get free
You've got me now
I'm sinking down
A haunted dream I can't escape
You're the ghost inside my brain
You never leave
I can't rest in peace

Started with stainless trust
It crumbled into rust
Now we're too late, it's done

I hate to see you without me
It breaks my heart but it's pounding
Baby moving on is cold
And I don't wanna die alone
I hate myself 'til I'm shaking
The pain won't numb so I'm taking anything to let you go
I just wanna die, if I have to die alone
Break the cycle

I hate to see you without me
It breaks my heart but it's pounding
Baby moving on is cold
I hate myself 'til I'm shaking
I just wanna die, if I have to die alone
