

Nothing Left to Lose

Hinder

When I left today,
The sun was shining and I finally OK
I had a taste of the happy life that we had yesterday
But that all changed,
When I saw your car parked at the super 8
Then the wind picked up and my love turned into rage

How could you make me hate you
You shoulda told the truth
How could you make me want to
Throw it all away and hurt you
Now I'm hopeless, broken down and bruised
I'm tired of being takin' I'm past the point of breakin'
Now I've got nothing left to lose

I shoulda known, by the way you whispered when you were on the phone
But I let it go
'Cause you swore that my love was all you've ever known
But you lied and told me everything would be alright
I might of walked away, but now I want to fight

How could you make me hate you
You shoulda told the truth
How could you make me want to
Throw it all away to hurt you
Now I'm hopeless, broken down and bruised
I'm tired of being takin' I'm past the point of breakin'
Now I've got nothing left to lose

I've got nothing to lose, I've got nothing to lose
I'm breakin', I'm on the edge,
I'm shakin', I can't take it
I'm breakin', I'm on the edge,
I'm shakin', I can't take it

How could you make me hate you
You shoulda told the truth
How could you make me want to
Throw it all away to hurt you
Now I'm hopeless, broken down and bruised
I'm tired of being takin' I'm past the point of breaking
Now I've got nothing left to lose

Yeah I got nothing to lose
I've got nothing
I've got nothing
Nothing to lose
